

" All my students are CareerSafe® OSHA Certified. Earning certification through the lessons learned in the modules allows my students to be workforce-ready. CareerSafe OSHA Certification is an important credential they can display on their resumes, job application forms and share at job interviews. Our Workplace Safety competencies are accomplished through the CareerSafe online program and are an important component of our program's curriculum. All employers need safe, conscientious, and prepared workers."

CTE Educator
Falls Church, VA

" You wouldn't think that a 10-Hour safety course would be applicable to computers and web design, but industry really likes it. They appreciate that students have a safety background because there are parts of a computer that are dangerous."

CTE Educator
Boston, MA

" Businesses have been loving it; students have been getting more internships. Students have been using their smartphones and get usually get it done over a weekend. "

CTE Educator
Sioux Falls, South Dakota

" There's nothing more important in our plumbing shop than the safety and well being of our students. Our kids learn their trade and good workhabits, but most importantly no one gets hurt."

CTE Educator
Lexington, MA

" The OSHA 10-Hour course has benefited our students by giving them better job opportunities. I have one student who was hired on the spot because of their OSHA 10-Hour card and several others who have recieved raises."

CTE Educator
Long Island, New York