

OSHA 30-HOUR CONSTRUCTION

Our OSHA 30-Hour Construction training course is provided through our partners at AdvanceOnline Solutions. This expanded credential offering is perfect for professionals and those looking for a deeper dive into OSHA safety standards.

TOPICS

- Introduction to OSHA
- Managing Safety and Health
- Struck and Caught Hazards
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Hearing Conservation
- Respiratory Protection
- Lead and Crystalline Silica
- Asbestos
- GHS Hazard Communication
- Electrical Safety
- Hand and Power Tools
- Fall Protection
- Ladder Safety
- Excavations
- Scaffolds
- Crane Safety
- Heavy Equipment
- Forklift Safety
- Materials Handling
- Fire Safety
- Welding and Cutting
- Concrete and Masonry
- Steel Erection
- Ergonomics
- Permit-Required Confined Spaces

BENEFITS AND FEATURES

By completing the OSHA 30-Hour Construction Industry training, students will:

- Earn an OSHA 30-Hour card from the U.S. Department of Labor, OSHA, demonstrating to employers they have received safety training needed in the workplace.
- Know their worker rights, employer responsibilities, and how to file a complaint.
- Become more employable, gaining a competitive advantage in the job market.
- Develop a safety mindset and learn valuable skills for their future.

